A REMINDER TO CREWMEMBERS: If you just bid training by Type, your Training will be awarded at that line. Please see examples below.

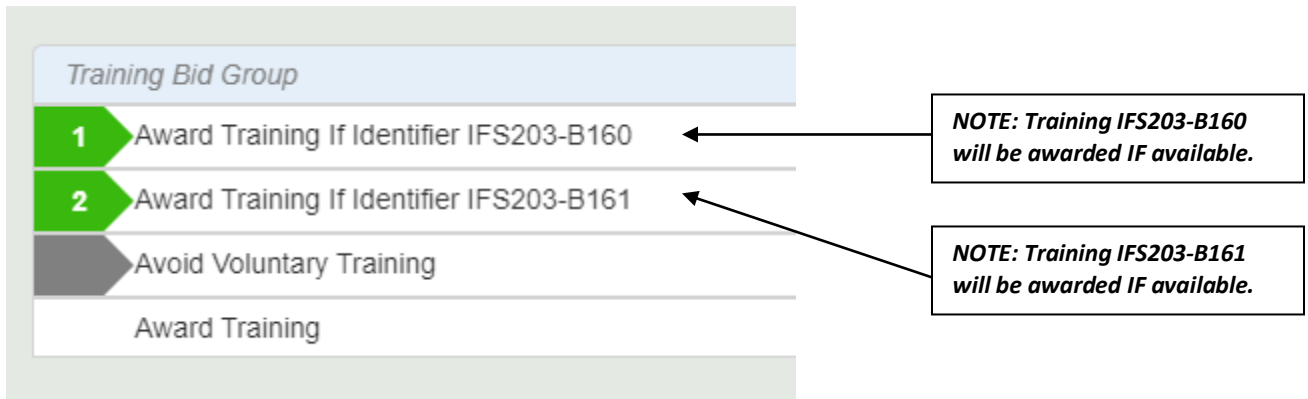

Bidding Example 1:

NOTE: Your Training will be awarded at this Line.

NOTE: In this example, even though you are specific in bid line 2, your Recurrent will be awarded at bid line 1 as no date or Identifier is indicated at this higher bid line. If you wish to bid for a certain date or session (Identifier) as in bid line 2, then this bid line should be placed higher in your bid.

Bidding Example 2: This crewmember bids using specific Identifier(s)

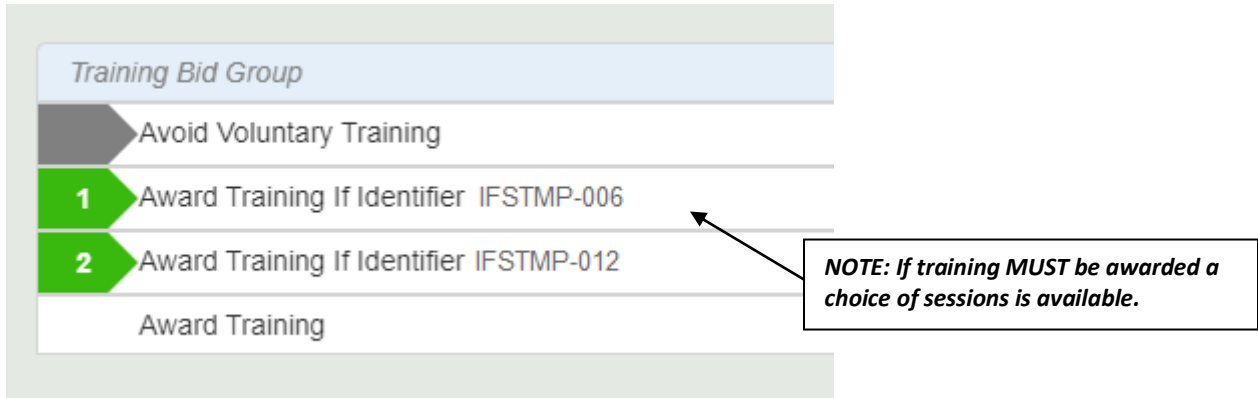

NOTE: In this example, since you were specific with your requests (1: IFS203-B160, 2: IFS203-B161) this is the order that your Recurrent would be awarded. In this example, if neither is available, PBS would award Recurrent on any date. It is therefore recommended to bid multiple bid lines.

Bidding Example 3: This crewmember bids using a specific date(s)

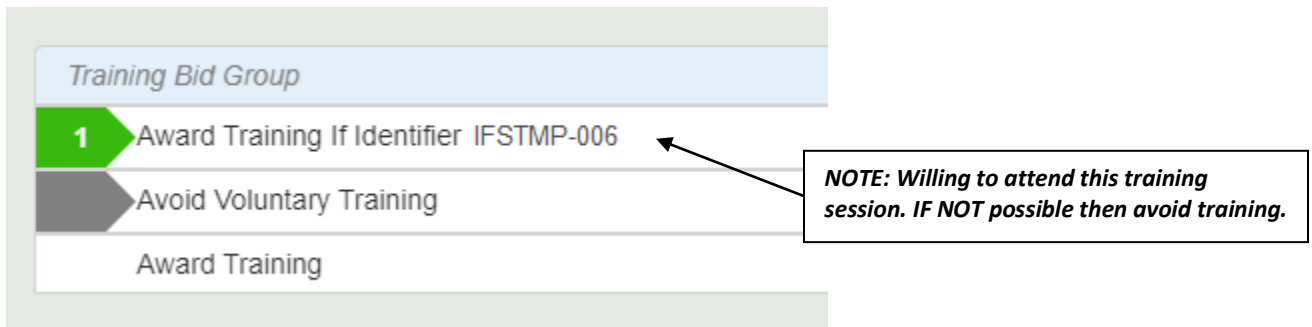

NOTE: In this example, since you were specific with your requests (1: Pattern Start March 10, 2: March 22) this is the order that your Recurrent would be awarded. In this example, if neither is available, PBS would award Recurrent on any date. It is therefore recommended to bid multiple bid lines.

Bidding Example 4: To avoid training (if possible)

NOTE: In this example, I tried to avoid training by leaving the embedded Avoid Voluntary Training at the top of my bid. If I cannot avoid the training and must attend, a choice of sessions is listed. It is therefore recommended to bid multiple bid lines.

Bidding Example 5: This crewmember bids using specific Identifier(s). If not awarded, then avoid training (if possible)

NOTE: In this example, I would like to attend a specific session as specified on bid line 1. If the session is full, I will try to avoid training by leaving the embedded Avoid Voluntary Training after bid line 1. If I cannot avoid the training and must attend, PBS would award training on any date.

DON'T FORGET TO COVER YOURSELF WITH ADEQUATE CHOICES!!!
